HOUSE OF BISHOPS HELD CONFERENCE

Triennial Convention of Protestant Episcopal Church in Session.

FOUR AUXILIARIES MEET

Rejected by One Vote Constitutional Amendment for Appointment of Suffragan Bishop—Board of Missions—Bishop Horner Speaks.

Cincinnati, O., October 7.—The first joint conference of the House of Bishops and the House of Deputies of the Protestant Episcopal Church, now holding its triennial convention, took place today. Auxiliary reports from various committees and addresses were made on "How Can the Church Better Discharge Her Duty to the American People."

Four auxiliaries met in the joint conference. These included the women's auxiliary, which held its first meeting of the convention, the Sunday School auxiliary, the American church missionary society and the American church building fund committee.

The building committee reported that it had accumulated $540,000 to aid in erecting churches.

Bishop J. M. Horner, of Asheville, N. C., addressed the meeting on "Southern Missions."

It was officially announced today that the House of Bishops had by one vote, rejected the constitutional amendment for the appointment of suffragan bishops, which was approved by the House of Deputies yesterday.

One of the important reports to the joint session of the two houses was that of the Board of Missions. It said in part: "During the last three years over $5,000,000 has been received in financial gifts for the extension of the Kingdom. The total for work in the United States was $1,568,240. The board also supported 21 bishops."

Since 1907 the board received from the Sunday School auxiliary, $21,464. The cost of administering the church's mission work throughout the world during the past year was 69 per cent. of the total passing through the board's treasury.

HANGED AT GREENVILLE.

Negro Admonishes Crowd to Leave Cards and Whiskey Alone.

Greenville, S. C., Oct. 7.—Three minutes to 11 o'clock this morning, Sheriff J. Perry Poole, stepped on the trigger which sprung the trap on the gallows at the county jail and the body of Walter, alias Bunk Sherard, swung into the air. At one minute after 11 o'clock his body was pronounced lifeless. The cruel murder of Officer Waldrop, of Piedmont, last August had been avenged by the law.

Sherard's last words were an admonition to all white and black as he advised them to let whiskey and cards alone. "It is the cause of my being here today," he said, "I am ready to go. God has forgiven my sins; I am a victim of whiskey and gambling; I am going home to die no more. May God bless all of His people here today."

Sherard then told the sheriff he was ready. The black cap was adjusted; the trigger sprung. The negro's neck was broken and death quickly ensued. Sheriff White, of Spartanburg, and Sheriff King, of Anderson, witnessed the hanging. The negro sang after being taken on the gallows, and most of the morning he spent in song and prayer. Constable Waldrop was murdered in August and after an exciting chase of two days, Sherard was captured. He denied his guilt during the trial, but confessed last week.

PASTOR FREED OF CHARGES.

Mr. Nesbit of Savannah is Exonerated by Vote of Presbytery.

Flemington, Ga., Oct. 7.—The Savannah Presbytery early this morning voted to exonerate Rev. W. A. Nesbit, pastor of Westminster Presbyterian Church at Savannah of all charges brought against him by insurgent deacons and elders.

These Presbyterians refused to consider the question of his removal as pastor at Westminster. A committee was appointed to go to Savannah and arrange for the establishment of a third Presbyterian church and to have charge of a division of the assets of Westminster between the factions in the congregation.

The exoneration of Mr. Nesbit came at the end of an all-day and night secret session of the Presbytery.

GEN. GRANT'S GRANDDAUGHTER.

Miss Julia Dent Grant to Become Wife of Edmund C. King.

Adrian, Mich., Oct. 7.—A license for the marriage of Edmund C. King, of Portland, Oregon, and Miss Julia Dent Grant, of San Diego, Cal., granddaughter of Ulysses S. Grant, was taken out at the county clerk's office yesterday. The marriage will take place on Saturday at the home of A. H. Wood in this county.

Miss Grant is the daughter of U. S. Grant, Jr., and a niece of Gen. Frederick Dent Grant of the United States army. Mr. King is of a prominent Toledo family.

WAR FERTILIZER TRADE?

American Chemical Company to invade Southern Markets—Plants at Wilmington, Columbia and Savannah, Ga., will be Built.

(Special Star Telegram.)

New York, N. Y., October 7.—A war for supremacy of this country's fertilizer business seems imminent. Many millions of dollars are to be utilized in an endeavor to obtain control of this branch of America's industry. The first move in this campaign is the announcement that three new fertilizer plants will be constructed by the American Chemical Company, during the next year, in the very heart of the territory covered by the Virginia-Carolina Chemical Company.

One will be at Savannah, Ga., where the company has purchased 70 acres of land and should be completed early in 1911, as the contracts have already been let. The second will be at Wilmington, N. C., and the third at Columbia, S. C. Work on the two latter will be begun as soon as possible and the entire three should be in operation by next summer. Altogether the expenditures for new construction will total something like $1,000,000. As the American Agricultural Chemical Company has a working capacity approximately $18,500,000, as shown by its recent annual statement, it is not likely that the construction work contemplated will call for new financing. Expended appropriations available for extensions and betterments at the time of the annual statement, exceeded $1,000,000 and the company has $4,000,000 unsecured bonds of the authorized $12,000,000 of two years ago. Officials say the contemplated expenditures for extensions will not affect the common stockholders' position, as the move into the Southern field is part of a policy of extensions which has been in effect for a long time. All common dividend discussions have been taken into consideration the financial requirements in connection with that policy.

While the America has always been a factor in the Southern field, the move of building three new plants simultaneously cannot be construed otherwise than an aggressive invasion of the preserves of the Virginia-Carolina Chemical Company. An interested closely connected with the Virginia-Carolina Company stated that the Southern field is large enough for both, but generally in fertilizer circles, the outlook for a trade war is considered excellent. The American Company estimates that it owns enough land to produce 1,000,000 tons of fertilizer annually, and as it enjoys equal advantages with the Virginia-Carolina Company in respect to the shipment of other raw material, its prospects for being eventually able to hold its own in its new territory seems good. The Virginia-Carolina company is considerably larger than the American, but the American has shown a much more consistent record of growth over the last decade.

PRISON CONGRESS CLOSING.

London Selected for Next Meeting—Final Session of Assembly.

Washington, Oct. 7.—With the work of the Eighth International Prison Congress practically concluded delegates began leaving today after the executive body had chosen London for the next meeting. "Visiting as I have selected Sir Evelyn Ruggles Brice, K. B., for the presidency of the Congress. The final session of the assembly will be held tomorrow morning at which the action of the commission today will be formally ratified.

There was no meeting of the Congress today, the delegates visiting the various penal and charitable institutions in and about Washington.

The Congress has agreed upon the following propositions to be comprised in an international code to be adopted by the next Congress: Incapacity for punishment in one country should be given effect in every other; crimes and misdemeanors of which a person guilty in one country, as touching conditional liberations, should be recognized in every other country; a bureau for international exchange of criminal sentences.

OFFICERS ON TEST RIDE.

Leave Washington for Fort Myer—Inaugurated by Teddy.

Washington, Oct. 7.—In a driving rain Major General Leonard Wood, chief of staff of the army, and 32 other officers started from Fort Myer early today on the first army horseman's ride of the year. It was General Wood's first ride on such a test in this country, the object of which is to put officers in a physical demonstration of their fitness for field service. These annual contests were inaugurated by President Roosevelt, but since have been modified in a number of respects.

REQUEST TO VIRGINIA SCHOOL.

Hampton Normal Receives $6,600 by Sillman's Will.

Albany, N. Y., Oct. 7.—Hampton Normal Institute, at Hampton, Va., will receive $6,600 by the will of Horace B. Sillman, of Cohoes, a former textile manufacturer, which was admitted to probate today, and which bequeaths the entire estate of over $400,000 to philanthropic purposes. One-half of the estate goes to William R. Moody, son of the late Dwight Moody, the noted evangelist, to aid in conducting his institutions at Northfield, Mass.

GREAT, BY GEORGE TEDDY IN SOUTH

Spoke From Early Morning Until Late at Night on Trip Yesterday.

"NEW NATIONALISM" AGAIN

Enthusiastic Reception Everywhere to African Hunter—Had Fine Day Across Virginia and Tennessee.

Knoxville, Tenn., Oct. 7.—The South today gave Theodore Roosevelt a "Great, by George!" Throughout the first day of his Southern trip, which took him across Virginia and a part of Tennessee, he received great honors.

The colonel made his first speech before he had finished breakfast, and kept at it until late last night, when his train left Knoxville for Atlanta. He said that he enjoyed the whole day immensely.

The colonel talked "New Nationalism" today. He defended it from the criticisms which have been directed against it and said that it was not revolutionary, but rather was designed to put a stop to things which might bring on a revolutionary movement if unchecked.

The two chief speeches of the day were delivered at Bristol, Tenn., and at Knoxville. In his Bristol speech the colonel defended "new nationalism," and went after the political bosses, saying that bossism was "the negation of democracy."

Knoxville's celebration was held on the grounds of the Appalachian Exposition, where Colonel Roosevelt spoke in the afternoon and again at a banquet tonight. All of East Tennessee poured out its people and several thousand were present from Virginia. The eleventh United States Cavalry escorted Colonel Roosevelt from the train to the exposition grounds to review a floral parade. As the former president mounted the steps, the band played "Dixie," and the people cheered. The Presidential salute of twenty-one guns was given for him. The colonel spoke at the ball park. Captain William Rule, of Knoxville, introduced Colonel Roosevelt.

The colonel had barely made a fair start when he was interrupted by the sound of weeping. Some one spied a small boy near the grand stand sobbing violently. The boy was led up the steps and delivered to the Colonel who stopped his speech. The boy explained to him, between sobs, that he was lost. The Colonel led the small, freckled urchin to the front of the platform where everybody could see him.

"What's your name?" he asked the boy.

"Eccles Nelson," said the boy.

"Where from?"

"Union county."

Colonel Roosevelt shouted out the boy's name and asked if his father was in the crowd. No one claimed the boy at first and the Colonel shouted his name again. Then he saw a hand waving above the heads of the people, some distance away.

"Come along," Colonel Roosevelt shouted. The crowd was so dense that the elder Nelson could not reach the platform for several minutes. The Colonel Roosevelt would not go on with his speech until the boy was restored to his father.

Colonel Roosevelt opened his speech by complimenting the people on their exposition. Then he discussed "new nationalism" and the navy.

"I have just come back from a trip on the other side of the ocean," Colonel Roosevelt continued. "Visiting as I did several different countries, there did several things that struck me: In the first place that we have something to learn and in the second that we have something to learn from almost every country. We have plenty of things to learn which we can improve on. I have come in contact with several of them and I am engaged in trying to improve my native city and State of New York. It is quite a job, but we are going to do it."

"It is not enough to say that we do not intend to do anything bad. People that do not go forward, go backward. They do not stand still. They go backward unless they go forward, and as a people we can keep ourselves, our citizenship, on a high plane of usefulness and achievement only by applying to the new things the old principles, the old morality that enabled our fathers in their days to achieve success for our common land. In peace, and I want to see a navy in place, and I want to see a navy kept up, because I know of nothing that produces a stronger desire on the part of other people to keep peace with us. That's sound common sense."

"Speak softly and carry a big stick. There are two sides of that. Always be cheerful. Remember it is the sign of a weak and foolish nature to insult any one else. Speak softly, but have the United States navy as a big stick always ready."

"Now the government must increase

THE INDEPENDENCE LEAGUE

Ticket Completed Last Night—Statement From Hearst, Upon His Return From Europe—Old Parties Are Condemned.

New York, October 7.—The Independence League which nominated John J. Hopper, of New York, for Governor and William L. Hearst, of Lieutenant Governor Wednesday night, met in convention again tonight and completed its ticket. A straight Independence League ticket was named from top to bottom.

The nomination made tonight followed: Dr. Thomas B. Schully, of Rome, for Secretary of State; Arnold B. M. Stay, of New York, for Comptroller; Dr. William L. Sirovick, of New York, for State Treasurer; James A. Lee, of Rockland county, for State Engineer, and Robert Stewart, of Kings county, for Attorney General.

The convention was harmonious and enthusiastic and the nominations were all made unanimously.

William R. Hearst, leader of the Independence League who arrived from Europe today, did not attend the convention, but a statement from him was read to the delegates by Clarence J. Shearer. He said in part: "I wrote lately my preference is always for a straight Independence ticket, but I have sacrificed my preferences whenever two progressive tickets would merely have divided the progressive vote."

"I say tonight that I would have sacrificed my preferences again if I had felt that a straight ticket would do nothing better than divide the progressive vote."

"I believe that the people generally have come to understand the combination that exists between both of the old parties, on behalf of the privileged interests, and I believe that your convention will be heartily thanked by all patriotic citizens regardless of party for the opportunity that it has given us to repudiate a corrupt political conspiracy."

"I do not see how any honest Jeffersonian Democrat could support this false Democratic ticket."

"I do not see how any sincere progressive Republican can support this fraudulent Republican ticket."

THREE BURNED TO DEATH.

Children in Minors' Home Near Charleston, W. Va.

Charleston, W. Va., Oct. 7.—Three young children of Mark Porter, a coal miner, were burned to death in a fire which destroyed Porter's home at Leeswood tonight.

George Stillner, a telegraph operator, who roomed at the porter home, is also believed to have perished in the flames. Rosie Porter, 16 years old, severely burned. The Porter family was sleeping in the house when it was enveloped in flames when the fire was discovered.

Franklin, La., Oct. 7.—Fire today destroyed the Adeline Sugar Company's sugar plant here. The loss is estimated at $300,000.

Naples, Oct. 7.—During yesterday and last night there were eleven cases of cholera and six deaths from the epidemic in this city.

OUTLINES.

Former President Theodore Roosevelt was given a warm welcome to the South yesterday, having spoken his first public speech in the trip across Virginia and Tennessee, where he made many short speeches.

Delegates representing 16 Southern States assembled at Atlanta yesterday with executive committee of the Southern Commercial Congress to make plans for development of the South. The rebels have surrounded Lisbon with guns posted in trenches to prevent an attempted invasion from troops loyal to the monarchy. Glifford Pinchot spoke yesterday at Atlanta at the Southern Conservation Congress. President Roosevelt will deliver an address today.

Another auto speed race is scheduled in Philadelphia today under the auspices of the Quaker City Auto Club. Twenty-one people were injured yesterday in a wreck on the Southern railroad near Asheville.—New York market: Money on call easy at 2 1/2 per cent. ruling rate 2 3/4, closing bid and offered at 2 1/2. Flour was steady with a moderate jobbing trade. Wheat steady. No. 2 red 1.05 Corn spot easy. No. 2, 59 1/2 elevator domestic basis to arrive and 59 1/4 o.b. spot. Oats, spot steady, futures closed 3/4 lower to 1 1/4 higher. Turpentine firm. Spot cotton closed steady, 35 points advance, middling uplands 14.50, middling gulf 14.75.

Its power, its power of control, over the possible use of wealth in large aggregations. I am not attacking corporations. I am only saying that they have got to be honestly managed. "I am no more attacking the honest man of business when I attacked the crooked man of business, than I am attacking the honest politician when I say that the crooked politicians ought to be sent to the penitentiary. On the contrary I hold that I am the friend of every honest politician when I try to drive out of public life the dishonest politician and in the same way, I hold that the first duty of the man who wishes to see honest business men prosper is to try to drive the crooked man out of business life."

Colonel Roosevelt's next stop will be Rome, Ga. He is due there at 8 o'clock tomorrow morning and will remain there until 1:30 o'clock P. M. Then he will go on to Atlanta.

PORTUGAL QUIET REPUBLIC CERTAIN

Lisbon in Cloudless Sunshine and Wears a Smiling Aspect.

RECOGNITION BY COUNTRIES

Public Buildings and Banks Under Heavy Guard—No Uprisings in Favor of Monarchy Reported—President's Statement.

Lisbon, October 7.—The establishment of a republic in Portugal is an accomplished fact. For a city that has just passed through the throes of a bloody revolution and sustained a bombardment, Lisbon today is in cloudless sunshine and wears a remarkably smiling aspect.

The Republican flag, fluttering on every building and from every balcony; the streets are thronged with promenaders, shops and offices have been re-opened and business generally has been resumed. The only evidence of the recent perturbation are small bodies of troops stationed in the principal open spaces of the city and the passage now and then of red Cross ambulances.

The noticeable outward signs of the new regime are the presence everywhere of the green and red flag of the republic and the complete disappearance of King Manuel's portrait from public exhibition.

In fact, not a vestige is seen of the picture post card portraits of the King of any other member of the royal family. These have given way to pictures of members of the new government and the photographic records of the revolution in the shape of groups of armed leaders and companies of insurgent troops, not in action, but posing for cameras.

The damage done to the city by the bombardment was surprisingly slight. On the journey down to Lisbon from the frontier one heard at each stopping place of thousands of persons having been killed and whole quarters of the city having been devastated or wiped out. The total number of killed has not yet been definitely ascertained, but it probably does not exceed 300. A couple of hotels near the station bear traces of having been struck by shells and of bullet marks. The streets show a busy aspect. There is no unusual excitement.

The recent events which startle the world are discussed by all classes with phlegmatic calm. The most interesting man in Portugal, at the present time is the new president, Teofilo Braga, who may be said to be the father not only of this revolution, but of that in Brazil, having by his standing as a professor of history and philosophy prepared the ground for both movements.

Braga today received the correspondence of the Associated Press. He particularly desires it to be understood that the revolution had no military or personal aim, but like those in Brazil and Turkey, was purely the outcome of philosophical ideas. The Braganza dynasty had failed to keep abreast of modern progress, he said, and had done nothing to prepare the people masters of their own destinies. This revolution was aimed to complete the realization of civil life untrammelled by prejudices or clerical domination.

Senator Braga added that he had every confidence in National resources and was confident that an honest administration would suffice without adventitious means to put the finances of the country on a satisfactory footing and achieve the moral and physical improvement the Nation so much needed.

The government is about to order a revision of the voting lists preliminary to holding elections for a constituent chamber. The provisional government will not remain in office beyond three months.

The chief points in the government's programme are: First, the development of public instruction and National defenses on land and sea; second, administrative decentralization; third, colonial autonomy; fourth, to guarantee fundamental liberties by judicial power; fifth, expulsion of monks and nuns; sixth, obligatory civil registration; seventh, lay instruction; eighth, separation of church and State, and, ninth, the strengthening of the credit and finance of the country.

Lisbon, October 7.—On account of reports that some of the troops in the provinces have not yet declared their adherence to the republic, the government is exercising the greatest vigilance. Thirty-nine heavy guns and ten Maxim guns have been posted in trenches on the heights of the city and are ready to check any attempted invasion of Lisbon. Up to the present, however, the government has received no advice of risings in favor of the monarchy.

The encamped forces of the Provisional government have detailed 200 soldiers and armed civilians to police duty in guarding public and other buildings, especially the banks of the city. All carriages passing through the streets are closely inspected. The wearing or carrying of small Republican flags of red and green are considered the open sesame to safe conduct throughout the city. During the night all shops and restaurants in (Continued on Page Eight.)

CONSERVATION IN THE SOUTH

Pinchot Charges That Water Power Resources are Controlled by Duke Interests—Attack on "New Nationalism."

Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 7.—Glifford Pinchot, at the initial meeting of the Southern Conservation Congress, declared that the South is as vitally concerned with the movement for the conservation of the nation's natural resources as is any section of the country, and he warned the Southerners that the big corporations already were actively working to secure a monopoly for the resources of this section.

"Your water power resources here in the South are so completely in the hands of the Duke interests and of the General Electric interests," he said, "that it will be almost impossible for independent to break into the water power market."

A bitter attack on "new nationalism" by Amos L. Ponder, of Louisiana, was a feature. He said this new theory of government would "reduce sovereign States to mere prefectures, and that its operation would mean the supplanting of a well organized government with unstable governments such as are to be found in South and Central America."

Dr. C. Willard Hayes, chief geologist of the United States Government told of the great mineral wealth of the Southeastern States. He laid special stress upon utilization because he regarded it as an essential feature of a form of practical conservation.

"To conserve resources for future generations at a serious sacrifice of the interests of the present generation," he said, "is not only unwise, but it is wholly impracticable and visionary."

Addresses were also made by Governor Willson, of Kentucky; C. S. Barrett, president of the Farmers' Union, and others.

NAMED FOR ROOSEVELT.

Negro Triplets Born in Washington Called for "The Strenuous."

Washington, Oct. 7.—Theodore Roosevelt, "Alice Roosevelt," and "Kermit Roosevelt," are the handles that have been taken on three little boys born in the city yesterday. The McDaniels, who arrived all in a bunch one day recently at the home of Cleon McDaniel, a colored man of this city. After the story, with a sigh of relief, had deposited the triplets safely in the home, the elder McDaniels and 8 younger ones held a conference and finally decided in the requisition upon the Roosevelt for nomenclature.

It is said Colonel Roosevelt has been advised of the tripartite proof the McDaniels have produced to show their anti-race suicide views and the family is keyed to a high pitch of excitement in the expectation that an early mail may bring some acknowledgment of the Colonel's appreciation of conformance with his teachings and the bestowal of his patronymic upon the babies.

WOMAN THREATENED BANKER.

Believed She Was Entitled to Money From Jacob H. Schiff.

New York, Oct. 7.—Miss Anna Volinsky, 40 years old, was taken in custody today charged with threatening Jacob H. Schiff, the banker, and other directors of the Monte Monte Home, a charity organization by which she was at one time employed.

Dr. S. Wachsmann, medical director of the home, appeared as the complainant. In his affidavit he said that she wrote threatening letters to Mr. Schiff, Cassius M. Mandel and himself. The trouble it appears, began with the woman's belief that she was entitled to commissions for work she had done. The affidavit also charges Miss Volinsky with being of unound mind.

FAMOUS MINE REDISCOVERED.

Santa Teresa Worked More Than Century Ago by Spaniards.

Bisbee, Ariz., Oct. 7.—American officials at Cananea yesterday announced the rediscovery of the old Santa Teresa gold mine, one of the few really "lost" mines of the Southwest, which was known to have been worked by the Spaniards more than a century ago, and which has been lost since 1810.

The main shaft was well preserved, but the timbers had been removed and the earth caved in. Two skeletons were found at the bottom of the shaft. Indians had kept possession of the mine so long that its location had become a mystery to the Mexicans. The Mexican government is now making arrangements to take charge of the mine.

GUNNER MUST DIE.

Royal Canadian Artilleryman Slew the Captain of His Company.

Victoria, B. C., Oct. 7.—Gunner Thomas Allen, of the Royal Canadian Artillery, who killed Capt. Peter Ellison, his commanding officer, on August 1, was sentenced yesterday to be hanged on December 4.

FORESEE AMAZING GROWTH OF SOUTH

Delegates at Atlanta Predict a Great Future For "Dixie Land."

MANY STATES REPRESENTED

Assisted Southern Commercial Congress in Working Out Plan For Material Development—Former Carolinian A Speaker.

Atlanta, Ga., October 7.—In sober business phrases nearly four score delegates appointed by sixteen Southern governors, today predicted an amazing growth in wealth and population for the South within the next ten years. Representing the agricultural and business interests of every section of Dixie, these delegates gathered to assist the executive committee of the Southern Commercial Congress in working out a plan for promoting the material development of the South.

As an aid to these objects the delegates drew up a new constitution for the Commercial Congress, which was adopted. Its salient features follow: Alabama, Arkansas, Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, Louisiana, Maryland, Mississippi, Missouri, North Carolina, Oklahoma, South Carolina, Tennessee, Texas, Virginia, West Virginia.

To collect and disseminate information regarding the resources and advantages offered in these states for the safe and profitable investment of capital, and to urge on the National Government proper legislation for conservation, river and harbor improvement and transportation facilities.

To provide for permanent establishment of the Commercial Congress, enlargement of its activity, through a permanent endowment fund.

For handling the endowment fund the Southern Commercial Congress Company is to be created, incorporated under the laws of the District of Columbia. A system of membership fees is provided for ranging from a life membership of $1,000 contributed to the endowment fund, and various corporation memberships to memberships within reach of individuals able to contribute only small amounts.

A board of 32 governors is created, consisting of the president, first and second vice-presidents, and 29 others, elected at annual meetings. The delegates were in almost continuous session all day, during which many short talks were made. G. Grosvenor Dawe, of Montgomery, Ala., now managing director of the Congress, predicted that nearly millions of people would come to the South within the next decade and a half.

E. B. Finney, of Washington, gave facts to demonstrate that over 80 per cent. of the lumber resources of the South are owned or controlled by non-resident capital. Capitalism, he said, of New York, declared that by an advertising campaign such as the Congress proposes, Brazil within the last six months has secured the investment of what ultimately will reach $20,000,000 of American capital, some of it from the South.

"It seems to me that the Southern people could use some such money for development of their own resources."

Thomas L. Field, a native of North Carolina, but now a resident of London, England, said that abroad among those acquainted with it, this congress is regarded as the most important commercial movement in this country since the Civil war.

B. N. Baker, former president of the National Conservation Congress, advised the delegates to "start today" to bring influence to bear upon the administration for the building of the fifteen new steamers of the Panama Railroad & Steamship Company, which will touch generally at Southern ports.

HOMELESS FROM FLOODS.

Record-Breaking Rains are Causing Streams to Overflow.

Louisville, Oct. 7.—Almost unprecedented rains have fallen in the Ohio river valley during the past three days, and as a result the Ohio threatens to reach a flood stage in a few days. In the past thirty-six hours the river at Paducah, Ky., has risen 6.3 feet and continues to rise. At Evansville, Ind., the river was rising at the rate of three-tenths of a foot an hour. The rainfall at the latter points totaled eleven inches in 48 hours, breaking the record in that section for the past 40 years.

At Louisville, Owensboro and other points in Kentucky, Evansville, Geonville and others points in southern Indiana, the rain of the past few days has caused damage amounting to hundreds of thousands of dollars, it is estimated. Bridges have been carried away, crops are totally destroyed, railroad tracks washed away and

BUT A FEW HOURS IN WHICH TO WORK

Special Bonus Offer in Voting Contest Will Positively Close at 10 O'clock Tonight.

A TIME TO GET BUSY

Thirty-Five Thousand Extra Votes for Clubs of Five New Subscribers If Secured Today—Office Open.

There are but a few hours left in which to work on the great special offer in connection with the Morning Star's voting contest. This offer gives 35,000 extra votes for every $30 in new subscriptions turned in by the contest department of the Star by 10 o'clock tonight.

Not to be Extended.

This offer positively will close tonight at 10 P. M. The office will remain open until that time in order to allow all contestants as much time as possible to realize on their promises, and complete their clubs. This liberal offer will positively not be repeated, and no other special offer whatsoever will be put on during the remainder of the contest, in which any candidate will receive as many votes on subscriptions as on this club offer.

Manager Offers Assistance.

If there is anything that the contest manager can do to assist any young lady in any way, he will be pleased to hear from them and will take the matter up at once.

Votes Not Transferable.

There have been numerous requests made by different contestants in regard to information as to whether votes held in reserve could be transferred to another. The answer to one and all has been and will be "No," as it would not be fair to allow anyone to pool votes. If a ballot is made out to a contestant, it must be voted for that contestant, and if any changes are made in the ballot the judges on the last night of the contest will be authorized to throw out the entire certificate.

Subscriptions Individually.

It is well to turn in subscriptions as soon as received, as then the contestant will be receiving a five-vote coupon from each and every subscriber, which they are missing owing to the fact of holding their subscriptions back and not turning them in. The contest department keeps an accurate record of all subscriptions and as soon as the club is completed the extra coupon for 35,000 votes is issued.

In Regard to Coupons.

When sending in coupons cut from the Star, be sure that you have the candidate's name upon at least one of the coupons, and have them fastened together in some way. Several complaints have come in where the contestant did not receive credit for the proper number of votes, and it was found that they had neglected to write their names upon them.

Secure More Than One Club.

A young lady is not limited to securing one club on this offer, but may secure as many as possible. If one is completed the contestant should try for another. Now is the time for each contestant to get a large reserve number, and by turning in subscriptions on this offer, more than double the regular amount of votes will be issued. Now is the time to make subscriptions count, so the advice of the Contest Manager is to get busy.

DEMOCRATS CHANGE METHODS.

Convention Instead of Primary in Second Virginia District.

Norfolk, Va., Oct. 7.—Following a long and stormy session, the Democratic Congressional Committee of the second district late today decided to hold a convention at Suffolk on Monday, October 17th, to nominate a candidate for Congress.

Delegates to the convention will be named by the various candidates following a primary to be held next Friday. Instead of voting for delegates in the primary, votes will be cast for the candidates and they will name the delegates on a basis of one delegate for every 50 votes cast.

It is an entirely new way of electing delegates and one which was severely criticized by William A. Young, who defeated Harry L. Maynard in the primary of August 23rd, which was declared null and void by the State Democratic Committee. Mr. Young declared the method of electing delegates was not in accordance with Democratic principles and he intimated that it was done apparently in the interest of an unnamed candidate.

The candidates before the convention will probably be William A. Young, of Norfolk; H. L. Maynard, of Portsmouth; E. E. Holland, of Suffolk, and J. Peter Holland, of Franklin.

BIG FIRE AT GALVESTON.

Pier of Southern Pacific Destroyed Entirely. Galveston, Tex., Oct. 7.—Fire today destroyed Pier C of the Southern Pacific Terminal Company, causing $120,000 damage. The pier was occupied by E. Y. Young and the Austin Export Company, both handlers of cotton seed products.

The steamship Monadnock was slightly burned.

RUSSIAN AVIATOR KILLED.

Killed by a Fall From Bi-Plane at St. Petersburg. St. Petersburg, Oct. 7.—Capt. Macievich, the Russian aviator, was killed today by a fall from a bi-plane while at a height of 3,930 feet. He held the Russian altitude record of 3,937 feet, which he made in a Bleriot monoplane October 3rd, and was trying to exceed this.

OUTLAW RESISTS ARREST.

Seventy-Two Deputies Close in on His Cabin—Offered Immunity.

Winter, Wis., Oct. 7.—Final efforts to get John F. Dietz, the outlaw of Cameron Dam, to surrender peacefully to the sheriff of Sawyer county failed today. Following final indictments, Attorney General Frank T. Gilbert, Sheriff Madden tonight began to prepare to "do his duty."

During the night 72 deputies closed in on the log cabin on the Thornapple river and at daybreak tomorrow an attempt is to be made to arrest Dietz on various charges.

At the conclusion of a conference with the Attorney General this afternoon Dietz predicted that he would be shot, but declared that he would die a martyr to his cause and family. The governor's representatives today offered to guarantee Dietz immunity from the law for all of the criminal charges against him and the members of his family, with the exception of the shooting of a school trustee, if he would surrender. He was offered ample protection, legal counsel and change of venue, but Dietz insisted that all civil claims against him be dismissed before he would surrender. These civil claims included judgments amounting to $25,000.

Winter is in a state of feverish excitement tonight. Sheriff Madden is at Cameron Dam, close to the edge of the clearing around Dietz's cabin.

POLITICS IN IREDELL.

Candidates on Insurgent Ticket to Make Canvass—Craig.

Statesville, Oct. 7.—The nominees of the insurgent ticket, consisting of insurgent Democrats and Republicans, have launched their campaign and will make a canvass of the county, beginning next week. The principal issue in their platform, and one which is meeting with favor, is the proposition to put the county officers on salary. The Democratic candidates wanted a joint canvass with the insurgent nominees, but this was refused and the Democrats will continue their canvass by holding school meetings.

The time-honored method of all the candidates going with the sheriff on his tax-round has been abandoned.

Hon. Locke Craig, of Asheville, has appointments to speak at Mooresville next Friday night and in Statesville Saturday night following tomorrow.

Mr. Holton, the Republican candidate for solicitor, canvassed the county during the past ten days.

NEGRO IN POLITICS.

Independent Political League Still to Take a Hand.

Washington, Oct. 7.—At a joint meeting here today of the executive and campaign committees of the National Independent Political League, a negro organization, a programme for active participation in the coming State and Congressional campaigns was adopted.

According to the leaders, speakers will be sent into districts and States in which there are candidates who, in the opinion of the league, are unfriendly to the black race. The fight, they say, will be commenced at once.

According to the committee, much of the organization's work will be undertaken with a view to administering a rebuke for the Brownsville affair, when a number of negro soldiers were discharged after the "shooting up" of the Texas town in 1906.

TO DIE UPON GALLOWES.

Young Negro Murdered Deputy Sheriff Pierce in Louisiana.

Franklin, La., Oct. 7.—Hugh Connerly, a young negro, was convicted at a special term of court here last night of the murder of Deputy Sheriff Ed Pierce and sentenced to hang. A lynching of the negro was narrowly averted immediately after the killing of the officer.

Dallas, Texas, Oct. 7.—A cold wave is prevailing in north Texas today and it is feared crops will be damaged. The thermometer here registered 50 degrees during the night.

NEGRO HACKMAN SLAIN.

Vengeance Wreaked Upon Man Innocent in Montgomery.

Montgomery, Ala., Oct. 7.—Sitting upright in his hack, but dead from a bullet wound in his heart, John Dell, a negro hackman of this city was discovered at 5 o'clock this morning. His death at the hands of the mob which last night surrounded the county jail and police headquarters is the only tangible sign of the fury of the white men who last night paraded the streets in thirst for blood.

Vengeance on the negro is supposed to have been wreaked early this morning, when the mob, falling in an effort to lay hands on the two negro prisoners who had been spirited away from the police headquarters, chanced upon the negro in their ramblings. He was found in a restricted district of the city which has led some to the theory that the negro was probably killed by a fare who objected to payment. Sheriff Horace Hood, however, entertains the opinion that the negro was killed by scattering remnants of the mob. The negro had two bullet wounds, one in the stomach and the other through the heart.

Thrilling stories are told by Chief of Police Taylor and Sheriff Hood of the difficulties encountered by the authorities in dispersing the crowds that had gathered to avenge the murder of Policeman T. W. Berry by the negro John Adams, on Wednesday afternoon. While the mob which gathered on Wednesday night was out primarily for blood of Adams, the mob of last night had been worked up to such great proportions that vengeance was probable on any negro that happened in their way.

John Pray and John Armstrong, the negroes who were spirited away from police headquarters in a patrol wagon, were arrested yesterday on suspicion. The patrol wagon in which they hid, spent most of the night behind an out-of-town slaughter house in the city.

Montgomery, Ala., Oct. 7.—For the third successive night and over the protest of Governor Comer, members of the Alabama National Guard are tonight stationed at the county jail to prevent a threatened lynching. The Chicago Police, Berry Tuesday, is killed Policeman Berry Tuesday, is still intense and today Sheriff Hood was warned that the third attempt to take the negro from the jail would be made tonight.

AMERICAN BANKERS.

F. O. Watts, of Nashville, Chosen President—Next Meeting.

Los Angeles, Cal., Oct. 7.—F. O. Watts, president of the First National Bank, of Nashville, Tenn., today was elected president of the American Bankers Association. William Livingston, president of the First Savings Bank, of Detroit, was elected first vice president.

The election was held at the final session of the convention. Invitations for the convention in 1911 were presented from New Orleans, La.; St. Paul, Minn.; Richmond, Va.; but the selection was left to the executive council. A decision will not be reached until the council meets in New York next May.

The convention endorsed a plan to hold an exposition in 1915, in commemoration of the centennial of the Panama Canal, but no indorsement of a site was made.

WALL STREET HIS UNDOING.

New York Merchant Given Eight Years for Defrauding Banks.

New York, Oct. 7.—Adolph Rothbarth, the Hoh Merchant, who pleaded guilty to having defrauded various banks in New York out of $300,000, was sentenced today to serve not less than three and not more than seven years in Sing Sing prison.

Ex-Judge Dittenhofer, counsel for Rothbarth, made a plea for mercy for his client.

GREENSBORO MAN SUICIDE.

W. A. Sharpe Locked Himself in Bath Room and Cut Throat.

Greensboro, N. C., Oct. 7.—W. A. Sharpe, a well-esteemed man of this city, committed suicide today at 11:30. He locked himself in a bath room and cut his throat with a razor, dying a few minutes afterwards. His age was 65, and he was employed as salesman for the Standard Oil Company. He is survived by a wife and two sons, Lacy Sharpe, of this city, and Frank Sharpe, at present a student at Davidson College. Ill health is supposed to be the cause of the rash act.

ST. PATRICK'S CATHEDRAL.

Ceremonies Conducted in New York. A Feature Day.

New York, Oct. 7.—The ceremonies accompanying the consecration of St. Patrick's Cathedral were practically concluded today with a solemn high mass. Thirty-five hundred members of the religious orders in New York were present besides nearly 10,000 laymen. Cardinal Logue, of Ireland, was the Pontiff, Cardinal Vannutelli, the papal legate, who marched in the procession from the sanctuary to bless the company, said he had never seen so great a gathering of members of religious orders at one service.

A thousand Christian brothers, formed the most numerous delegation. Franciscans, Benedictines, Passionists, Camillites, Augustinians, Dominicans, Paulists, Rosemontians, Marists and Jesuits sat around them.

Since Wednesday, when the ceremonies began, more than 100,000 persons have worshipped in St. Patrick's.

'VARSITY' DEBATES ARRANGED.

(Special Star Correspondence.)
Chapel Hill, N. C., Oct. 6.—Final arrangements have been made by which

Carolina has entered into a pentagonal debate which will take two years for completion. The other four universities which are parties to the agreement are Georgia, Tulane, Vanderbilt and Virginia. By the terms of the agreement Carolina will this year send a team to Athens to debate the University of Georgia, and will be

The five debates that are scheduled for this year will be held at the same time on some Saturday night in the latter part of April or early in May.

This year Georgia will send a team to New Orleans against Tulane; Virginia debates Carolina at Chapel Hill; Tulane meets Vanderbilt at Asheville; Vanderbilt goes to Charlottesville and Carolina to Athens. One question, to be decided on, will be used in all of the debates.

A recent letter from the University of Pennsylvania completed arrangements for the debates with that institution. One will be held in Philadelphia some time this Fall, the other next year at Chapel Hill. The arrangements for these debates places Carolina in the limelight with the leading Southern institutions and one of the foremost Northern college and will give the Tar Heels renewed opportunities to add laurels to their already enviable record in forensic achievements.

A chapter of Tau Kappa, the National debating fraternity, has been organized at the University. This society is to debating what the Phi Beta Kappa is to scholarship, the basis of membership being participation in an inter-collegiate debate. The chapter at Carolina is the first in the State to receive a charter and will have the power to grant charters to other chapters in the State, who may apply for them. The University is thus justly placed at the head of the inter-collegiate debating activities of

The University Dramatic Club met Thursday for the consideration of a new play. The director, Professor McKee, met with the club for the first time this year. After discussion a committee was appointed to investigate different plays and to decide on one. Some of them under consideration are: "The Man of the Ham," and "The Importance of Being Earnest," by Oscar Wild.

(Since last Saturday's game with V

The line showed up especially well

it. The main weakness of the team was the slowness of the backfield.

Coach Brides has been drilling into half-back and Sam Spencer, the ol-

Carolina, is also doing good work. I is expected that in the next game Gonzalez's backfield will be even better.

Carolana's backfield will be greatly improved and this will strengthen the Varsity wonderfully.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country

Saturday, October 8, 1910.

Why on earth is a Republican, anyhow—especially when the thing is going to be unanimous for a Congress which will represent the people?

A South Carolinian has been sent to the penitentiary for ten years for striking his mother-in-law over the head with a chair. This is no joke, but it warns men that they may always expect to come out at the little end of the horn when they get their mother-in-law down on them.

President Taft now realizes that insurgency is not a theory but a condition, which he has tried to meet by restoring its Federal patronage. Probably his ultimate realization will be that patronage will not pass for its face value in buying back an insurgent who has insured in spite of patronage.

A Republican deplors the fact that the editorials of the Charlotte Observer have ceased to be "broad." Our Republican friend is entirely mistaken.
The Observer's editorials are so broad that in their sweep they are cutting the ground from under the feet of Marion Butler. "Cause admitted," as the lawyers say.

Says the Rowland (N. C.) Sun: "For Governor in 1912; Locke Craig, by a unanimous vote." Logically, that is the programme, and, judging from public sentiment throughout eastern North Carolina, if Mr. Craig keeps on behaving like he has, he can spend his time the next two years in preparing a classical acceptance speech.

The United States Treasury Department announces the probability of a "shortage" of money this Fall.
This is another reason why honest Democrats should have charge of the money so other people can't have the chance to create a "shortage" whenever they take a notion they may as well have the money the other "criminal rich."

Says a matrimonial philosopher: "A man should know a woman before he marries her." There is one philosopher who isn't fully acquainted with the fact that a woman has so much originality she springs something new every day and Sunday too. How is any unsuspecting man to keep abreast of a marvelous originality the like of which he never dreamt of in all his philosophy?

Who said there are no genuine Democrats in the North? Well, of course, there are. Massachusetts Democrats at their State convention on Thursday proved that they are "all wool and a yard wide" by showing their colors and licking each other, just like any of us good Democrats do when we can't agree. No genuine Democrat will stand for it when they try to "run over" each other. Of course, the Republicans need never hope to lick the Democrats, because it can't even lick itself after fighting for about 25 years.
Democracy has the grit with which game cocks fill up their craw.

We have always had our doubts about the true-blueness of Massachusetts Democrats, but we have done them great injustice in suspecting them of mangwumpus. However, the Massachusetts boys are the real thing.
When the State convention met in Boston on Thursday it was enlivened by a "melee," whatever that means—but it sounds Democratic—and Chairman Thayer called for the police because "half a dozen mix-ups were in progress" and the boys "were pounding one another in and about the press boxes." A Democrat surely will fight for his rights. This is a Democratic year. Democrats are "getting together"—whenever they get a chance at each other.

COME ON SOUTH.

The Washington Post points out the immense possibilities of agriculture in the South. That esteemed contemporary remarks that according to a table of statistics which finds credence in numerous newspaper publications, there are in 16 Southern States, including Oklahoma and excluding Delaware, 757,282,919 acres of land of which only 145,185,999 acres are in a state of cultivation.

The Post remarks that "this leaves nearly 1,000,000 square miles of virgin territory untouched, much of it swamp that will some day be turned into the most productive farms on earth." The statistics referring to the South probably are about correct, and they show that more than three-fourths of the land in the South is untouched. This sounds reasonable, for of the 56,000,000 acres of land within the borders of North Carolina only 8,000,000 acres are utilized for farming purposes. It means that a very small percentage of North Carolina lands is utilized for cultivation and that there are in North Carolina agricultural opportunities for millions of people if we were only to utilize even one-third of the available lands in the State. However, let us quote from the Post, which, after noting the millions of idle lands in the South, says:

"Then why should the Iowa farmer go to the Dominion of Canada, where he meets with a harsh and cruel climate, and where few crops can be grown, mostly grain and potatoes? The animosities and the jealousies growing out of the great war of nearly half a century ago are assuaged by time and soon will be entirely eradicated.
The Northern farmer who sells his high-priced lands to his neighbor and moves South to grow up with and develop that section is a favorite of fortune."

We are astonished, with the South's better climate and more productive lands, that this country is not overrun by homeseekers. The opportunities in North Carolina, for instance, are innumerable and practically the resources of the State are untouched.
The agricultural opportunities in North Carolina are all the more emphasized when it is stated that within this region farm products, in refrigerator trains, can be landed in twenty-four hours in Northern markets supplying more than 30,000,000 of people. However, why should the Post mention the War, an event which practically lives in tradition, leaving not animosity but a mere sectional sentiment, sacred, yet so unobjectionable that there are no differences between Southerners and the Northern neighbors who have already come by the thousands to grow up with the country. Those who do not bring "animosities" with them certainly will find none in the South. On the contrary, they will find a warm welcome and a tolerance greater than any new comer ever dreamed of. It is a far cry from the War, and the South not only is in the Union but it is the most American portion of it. There is no need to dwell upon this, but let us take more of a good thing from the Post, which continues:

"It is perhaps true that much of the vacant land at the South was once improductively filled, but it was then the most desirable farming land of that section and is susceptible of complete reclamation. It is also true that much of these boundless acres is mountain and unfit for tillage, though abounding in forests. Yet the fact remains that there are homes awaiting millions of people at the South where the soil has only to be tickled to laugh with the fatness of Egypt.
There the climate is mild and salu-brious, the water clear, sweet, pure, and abundant, the season of cultivation long, and the rainfall ample. As for crop diversity, the South is far ahead of the North, producing every farm crop that can be grown at the North and others besides."

Poor lands in the South are a negligible quantity. The fact is, soil reclamation, modernized cultivation and scientific fertilization are making the lands of the South more productive than they ever were in the history of agriculture. A cotton crop this season valued at one thousand millions of dollars, in addition to the many millions for tobacco, corn and hundreds of other products of the farm, convey but a slight idea of the importance of the South's agriculture, which contributes so enormously to the export trade of the United States.
Come on South where prosperity has the opportunity to exceed the prosperity of all the balance of the country.

"The Bentztown Bard" of the Baltimore Sun sings in one of his poems:
"The old-time patter-patter of the music of the rain." Sounds like the old standpatter and the ceasing of his reign.

A Georgia woman has found her husband after having believed he had been dead for 13 years. No doubt there are hundreds of Georgia women who would like to lose their husbands because they really have been dead ducks for more than 13 years.

The Salisbury Post remarks: "Booker T. Washington was recently royally entertained at dinner by King Frederick and Queen Louise, of Denmark, as their honored guest." That will clinch the vote of Roosevelties for Fred and Louise, for they have carried out one of "My Policies."

MR. GODWIN'S CAMPAIGN.

The Hon. H. L. Godwin, Democratic nominee for Congress in this district, has entered upon his canvass and will speak at different places in all the counties of the Sixth District. Congressman Godwin is strong with the people, for they watched his course in Congress and were convinced that he was tireless in his work in the interests of the country. He aimed to be of service and usefulness to the average man and his work was earnest and has been so recognized by the people.
His big vote in the Democratic primary election indicated that the people appreciated his sincere efforts in behalf of the substantial interests and progress of the various counties, and not alone while he was in Congress, but at numerous times when Congress was not in session he went among the people of the different counties and interested himself in practical work for their benefit. We are prepared to believe that his fidelity to the masses will win him the election by a big majority in November.

Democrats in the primaries divided on their choice of a nominee but the result of the primary election finally demonstrated that the people of the district wanted Mr. Godwin to serve his third term at Washington. While there was an honest difference as to men for the nomination there should be no difference on the 8th of November as to the nominee of the Democratic party. Mr. Godwin carries the Democratic banner and it should not be allowed to trail in the dust. The most vital issues are involved in this campaign in the interest of consumers and tax payers and the Sixth District cannot afford to elect a Congressman who will not stand with the Democratic delegation in Congress for the relief of the people from the burdens of the protective tariff of Aldrichism.

It is believed that North Carolina will send a solid Democratic Congressional delegation to Washington and that result is all the more to be desired because it means National legislation in behalf of the people instead of favored interests, and furthermore for the reason that it will be such a blow to Butlerism that its venality and menace will be eliminated for the future good of the Good Old North State.

The Landmark records the State Central Committee of the Democratic party enthusiastic praise for its repudiation of the rotten Congressional primary of August 23rd. The committee sustained the report of its subcommittee pronouncing the primary null and void; and in the selection of a nominee on the "new deal" the field will not be confined to two candidates of August 23rd. It was a righteous and sensible verdict. We wish the Central Committee had gone a little further, however, and decreed the method of securing a nomination under the new deal, instead of leaving it to the District Committee to decide between a primary or a convention. Though recognizing that the time is short and the situation complicated, the Landmark declares with all of the force it can put behind words that public sentiment demands a primary. A convention won't do. It represents a step backward, a return to worn-out conditions. The only way of satisfying the Democratic people of this District, now aroused and never before in a generation, will be to give them a new primary, free and fair.
The rules and regulations and auspice must be such as to command the confidence of the voters. It may be difficult to arrange such a primary.
We admit it. But it is possible and necessary; for anything else might lose the District in a Democratic year.
Beware of a convention! Give us something new—not a rehash.—Norfolk Landmark.

TRINITY COLLEGE NEWS.

Dr. Few's Inauguration—Track Athletics—Bishop Kilgo on Campus.
(Special Star Correspondence.)

Trinity College, Durham, N. C., Oct.
6.—The inauguration of William Preston Few, Ph.D., as president of Trinity College, will take place at Durham on Wednesday, November 9th, at 10 o'clock in the morning. An announcement of this event has been sent to all leading institutions of higher learning in the United States, and it is expected that a large number of these will be represented on this occasion.
A number of distinguished men will take part in the programme. Dr. Harry Pratt Judson, president of the University of Chicago, will deliver the congratulatory address in behalf of the delegates from other institutions.
Previous to the regular induction exercises, the new building, the first to be completed of the group now in process of erection, will be formally presented to the college. The completed programme of all the exercises will be announced at an early date.

The relay race which is to come off Saturday, October 29th, is arousing considerable interest among the students. A score or more men are out every afternoon getting in shape for the occasion. Each class has elected a captain and a manager of its team.
Skeetism, and he handled his subject in his usual pleasing manner. The Bishop is looking fine, and has entered upon his new work with determination and enthusiasm.

The Kappa Sigma Fraternity of Trinity College took advantage of the holiday last Monday and picnicked at Southgate's cabin near Hillsboro. The picnic is one of the big social affairs of the Autumn season in college circles and is much looked forward to by the members of the fraternity.

At a meeting of the Junior Class held recently, Mr. J. J. Lowry, of Asheville, and Mr. W. H. Muse, of Durham, were elected respectively editor and business manager of the "Trinity Archive" for the year beginning September 1911. "The Archive" is the literary publication of the college and easily ranks among the foremost periodicals of the leading Southern colleges, and in electing these two gentlemen the class made a wise selection.

COLORED BAPTISTS MEET.

Thirty-Ninth Annual Session of Middle District at Rocky Point.

(Special Star Correspondence.)
Rocky Point, N. C., Oct. 7.—The 39th annual session of the Middle District Baptist Association, colored, met at St. Matthew's Baptist church. A large delegation was present, representing over 50 churches and a membership of over 5,000. The objects of the Association are the fostering of the Burgaw High School and of home and foreign missions. About 30 ministers were present. Moderator Rev.
A. Carr; secretary, Rev. W. H. Moore,
D. D.

Rocky Point, N. C., Oct. 7.—Today's session of the Association was called to order at 10 A. M. After devotional exercises and the adoption of minutes of the first day's proceedings, the letters of the several churches were read which showed increased membership and increased contributions for the objects of the body. The new churches were received into the body. Many short speeches were made for the improvement of the race along moral and educational lines. Drs. C. S.
Brown, of Winton, N. C.; C. C. Somerville, of Portsmouth, Va., and A. B.
Vincent, of Raleigh, were present and delivered able speeches along these lines.

The speakers advocated wiser, purer and more consecrated ministry for our pulpits, if the race is to advance to the standard of good citizenship.
Much was said in favor of the temperance cause and against bad moral in general. The temperance sermon was preached tonight at 8 o'clock by Rev. H. Peterson.

BUTLER AND THE CIRCUS.

Offered Some Interest for Washington, North Carolina, This Week.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Washington, N. C., Oct. 7.—Washington had two attractions yesterday that drew large crowds to the city.
The "Mighty Haag Shows" was the chief drawing card and Marion Butler, the Republican boss and orator, was the other. Circus day was generally enjoyed by both young and old and the Haag Shows gave two very creditable performances and a fairly good parade. Fully two thousand visitors were in the city yesterday on account of the circus. Mr. Butler arrived on the morning train and spoke at noon in this city to a large audience of Republicans and some few Democrats.
His speech like all his others recently made in the State, was a bitter arraignment of the Democratic party in North Carolina and was received with much applause from the Republicans.
Quite a number were disappointed in Mr. Butler's speech and did not think he came up to his usual standard as a speaker.

TRIAL OF BIG DAMAGE CASE

Eddie M. Bryan Seeks to Recover $25,000 From Hilton Lumber Co. for the Loss of Arm—To the Jury Today.

Superior Court is now in the midst of the trial of the case of Eddie M. Bryan, a young white man, against the Hilton Lumber Company, an action for alleged damages in the sum of $25,000 for the loss of an arm as the result of injuries received while operating a planing machine at the plant of the company in January, 1908, alleging that the machine was defective. The case will probably go to the jury some time today.

The trial of the case was begun yesterday morning. The plaintiff was the first witness and he was on the stand for two hours and a half, being followed by Druggists J. A. Smith and B. C. Moore, who testified to his character, and Mr. Avery, a machinist, who made an examination of the machine operated by the plaintiff at the time of the accident. Mr. Avery was the last witness on the morning session. At the afternoon session the plaintiff introduced one or two witnesses, after which it rested its case, and the examination of witnesses for the defendant company was begun. When court adjourned for the day at 6 o'clock not all the witnesses had been examined and it is probable that the plaintiff will introduce additional witnesses today.

The plaintiff is represented by Geo. L. Peschau and Hon. John D. Bellamy, while appearing for the defendant are ex-Judge E. W. Bryan and Thos. W. Davis, Esq. The testimony in the case is being taken down by Miss Stella Shrier.

The case of W. E. Huggins, a young white man, against the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad Company, an action for $20,000 alleged damages for the loss of an arm, was run over by a Coast Line engine on the local yards about two years ago, has been compromised. The plaintiff, who was represented by L. Clayton Grant, Esq., appeared in person before the court yesterday morning and announced his desire to enter a retraxit in the case, therefore a retraxit was ordered by the court. The terms of the compromise were not made public, but it is understood that the railroad is to pay the costs of the action, the plaintiff probably gets some damages and will very likely be going on his way to the road. The young man was formerly employed in the local shops of the company. About two years ago he was run over by a train on the yards and one of his arms severed.

MANY NEW BOOKS.

Valuable Addition to Wilmington Public Library—Fall and Winter.

The usefulness of the Wilmington Public Library which has just entered upon its Fall and Winter work with the brightest prospects, has recently been greatly enhanced by the addition of quite a large number of new books which will be found suited to all tastes. Among some of the new books may be mentioned the following:

"The Gay Lord Waring," "Kilmeny of the Orchard," "The Doctor's Last Case," "The Impostor," "The Glory of the Conquered," "The Lost Ambassador," "The Lady of the Spur," "Rezanov," "A Southerner in Europe," "Rose in the Ring," "The Wheel of Time," "Chantecler," "The Arncliffe Puzzle," "Chanting of Red Butte Western," "On the Face of the Waters," "The Potter's Thumb," "Belshazzar," "Window at the White Cat," "Alissa Paige," "Max," "Opal Sea," "On the Branch," "House on the Hudson," "Confessions of a Wife," "Women of Shakespeare," "Making of a Personality," "Translation of Faust," "German," "Flemish and Dutch Painting," "George Washington," "Congressional Government," "American Commonwealth," "English Prose," "English Poetry," "Five volumes," "Kate Books," 10 volumes, "Little Peppers," an entire set of "Bugs on the Fields," and a full set of the Algerand "Henty Books for Boys."

Aged Colored Man Dead.

Isam Howard, one of the oldest colored citizens of Wilmington, died Thursday night. He was 97 years old and held the record for both white and colored people of the city. The funeral will be from St. Luke's A. M. E. Zion church Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. He was a member of this church and the burial will be by the Union Society in Pine Forest cemetery.

Death of Infant Son.

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Farrow will tenderly sympathize with them in the death of their 14-month-old son, Henry Louis Farrow, which occurred at the family residence, No. 202 North Seventh street, at 4 o'clock yesterday morning. The funeral will be held from the residence at 10 o'clock this morning and the interment will be in Oakdale cemetery.

CURES PIMPLES EASY.

Simple Remedy That Clears Skin Quickly of All Eruptions.

For several weeks past J. Hicks Bunting Co. have done the biggest business it ever had in any one article in selling Hokara, the skin food that has won so many friends in Wilmington. It has been found to be an absolute cure not only for all minor skin troubles, such as pimples, blackheads, herpes, ache, scaly scalp, complexion blemishes, itching feet, piles, etc., but for the worst sores, ulcers, or even chronic eczema and salt rheum. There has yet to be found an absolute cure on disease affecting the skin or mucous membrane that Hokara does not heal, and its action is so instantaneous that those who try it are simply delighted with it right from the start.

In spite of its unusual curative powers, the price is trifling. To convince every one of its merits, they will sell a liberal-sized jar for 25 cents. And remember that if you do not think it does what it claims, you get your money back. You certainly can afford to try it on this plan.

If the skin trouble is caused by impure blood or if the bowels are inactive, use Hokara Blood Tablets. They cool and cleanse the blood and regulate the bowels in a natural way.

INCREASED BANKING FACILITIES

American National to Increase Its Facilities for Business—From $150,000 to $250,000 Is Decided Upon.

The banking capital of the city, already large and second to none in the State and few in the South, is to be still further increased. Yesterday morning's paper told of the decision of the directors of the Murchison National Bank to increase its capital from $550,000 to $825,000 and simultaneously with this public announcement, comes the news that on Tuesday, at the regular meeting of the directors of the American National Bank, it was decided to increase the capital stock of that bank from $150,000 to $250,000.

The directors of the American in reaching the unanimous decision to thus increase its facilities for doing business, also recommended that each of the present shareholders be allowed to purchase 50 per cent. of their present holdings at par and that the $250,000 remaining be sold at $115 per share to new desirable interests. In order to carry out the effect of the directors' recommendations a meeting of the shareholders of the bank is called to be held Tuesday, November 15th, at 4 P. M., at the banking house of the institution, this city.

Although the "baby" bank of the city in point of years, the growth of the American National has been beyond the Board's most sanguine hopes. The total assets are now around the one and a half million mark. The directors are Messrs. V. S. D. G. W. Huggins, Geo. O. Gaylord, Herbert McClammy, W. B. Cooper, J. T. King, Cuthbert Martin, J. J. Hopkins, W. B. McClellan, A. G. Warren and Thos. E. Cooper.

THREE BIG STEAMERS HERE.

Queen Wilhelmina and Crown of Castile Arrived in Port Yesterday.

Three of the largest steamers of the season to visit this port arrived yesterday. The British steamer Crown of Castile, Capt. Smith, 2,528 tons net register, came from Barbadoes light to receive cotton from Messrs. Alexander Sprunt & Son for foreign export. The British steamer Queen Wilhelmina, Capt. Manning, 2,307 tons net register, comes from Middleboro, England, via Charleston, S. C., with 1,000 cases of sulphate of ammonia for the Wilmington Compress & Warehouse Company. This steamer is also to Messrs. Sprunt & Son.

The British steamer Soutra, Capt. Davies, which has been previously reported, arrived yesterday from Baltimore and will also receive cotton from this port for Jacksonville, Fla., where she will receive cargo for foreign export. The other steamers come light and are among the number of big tramps chartered this season by the cotton exporting firm here. The Queen Wilhelmina has 19 Chinamen aboard, a fact, as required by law reported to the custom house officials yesterday.

MR. SETTLE TO SPEAK HERE.

Delivers Address Saturday Under Auspices of Republican Committee.

Mr. Thomas Settle, one of the leading Republicans in Western North Carolina, who is well known here, where he has made speeches on a number of occasions, will deliver an address at the Court House, Saturday, October 15th, under the auspices of the Republican State Executive Committee.

Mr. Settle is one of the leaders in the campaign being waged throughout the State by the progressive element of Republicans and his appearance here will doubtless attract much interest. He is at present campaigning in the State.

A letter from the State committee, informing the Republicans here that Mr. Settle would speak, was received yesterday by a prominent Republican and citizen. He last spoke in Wilmington during the prohibition campaign in 1908, and has since secured a Federal appointment under the Attorney General in Washington, D. C.

FEDERAL COURT DAY LATE.

Convenes on Wednesday Instead of Tuesday on Account of Election.

On account of November 8th being election day throughout the country, the November term of Federal court in this city will convene one day late, on Wednesday, November 9th, instead of Tuesday, November 8th. The following is the order of business for the day:

"It is ordered that the November term of the United States court in Wilmington be, and the same is hereby postponed from Tuesday, November 8th, to Wednesday morning, November 9th, 1910, at 10 o'clock A. M."

"And the clerk of said court is ordered and directed to notify parties, witnesses and jurors to attend at the United States rooms on November 9th, 1910, at 10 o'clock A. M., in accordance with this order."

"H. G. CONNOR, United States Judge."

Buggies for Brunswick.

That the country is in excellent shape and that the people of the rural districts are not only enjoying better farm life conditions than ever before, is attested by the receipt this week of a solid car load of fine buggies, consigned to Mr. F. P. White, the well known general merchant of Shalotte. They came in care of Mr. J. W. Brooks and will be transported via his boat lines to the consignee at Shalotte.

Forced to Leave Home.

Every year a large number of poor sufferers whose lungs are sore and racked with coughs are urged to go to another climate. But this is costly and not always sure. There's a better way. Let Dr. King's New Discovery cure you at home. "It cured me of lung trouble," writes W. R. Nelson, of Calumet, Ark., "when all else failed and I gained 47 pounds in weight. It surely the King of all cough and lung cures." Thousands owe their lives and health to it. It's positively guaranteed for Coughs, Colds, La Grippe, Asthma, Croup—all Throat and Lung troubles. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free at Robert R. Bellamy's.

ALDERMEN DECLINED TO BUY

Action of City Fathers One Year Ago With Reference to Existing Sewerage System Is Recalled—The Record.

Against the present general demand of the people of the city that the work of installing a new and modern sewerage system be undertaken without further delay, and a statement at a meeting of the Street Commission, Thursday afternoon, to the effect that the Aldermen should get together, decide whether or not the city will purchase the existing sewer plant or any part thereof and order that work of installing an adequate system proceed, the following, from the minutes of the Board of Aldermen, with reference to a special joint meeting of the Aldermen and the Board of Audit and Finance, held on the evening of August 27, 1909, will be of interest:

A special joint meeting of the Board of Aldermen and Board of Audit and Finance was held this day, at 8 P. M., the Mayor presiding and the city attorney and all Aldermen but Aldermen Pales and Karr, in attendance. Messrs. M. J. Heyer, Jessie Wilder and M. G. Tinsley, of the Board of Audit and Finance, were present.

"The clerk read to the board the report upon the system of the Wilmington Sewerage Company, as submitted by Messrs. VanC. Lucas, C. R. Humphreys, H. DeW. Mespelle, civil engineer, appointed for the purpose. The engineers, in their report, recommended that the city do not purchase said plant. After thorough consideration of the report, Alderman Hinton moved that the engineers' report be accepted, and that the city do not purchase the sewerage plant of the Wilmington Sewerage Company. Motion unanimously adopted."

In accordance with the action of the aldermanic board, the Water and Sewerage Commission, after the work of rehabilitating and reconstructing the waterworks system was well underway, contracted with Messrs. Hurst & Anderson, engineers, to make the necessary survey and draw plans for a new sewerage system, which, it is understood, has practically been completed.

The situation now is this: The Water and Sewerage Commission contends that it cannot proceed with the work of installing a new sewer plant until the remaining $100,000 worth of water and sewerage bonds are sold, and the work of the Street Commission is held in abeyance until the work of laying the sewers has been begun. Another complication is likely to arise. The Sewerage Company, which owns the present sewer plant, quite naturally thinks that its plant is worth something, and parts of it could be used in the proposed new system, and will hardly let the matter stop with the aldermanic action as outlined above. It is understood that the company thinks that it should receive something from the city and it is not improbable that should the work of installing a new system be started, and no satisfactory agreement reached between the city and the present sewerage company, that some court action will result, which might delay still longer the sewerage and street work. No member of the company has been seen with reference to the probable action of the company, but judging from tenor of the remarks of Street Commissioner Worth, an officer of the Sewerage Commission, at the meeting of the Street Commission, Thursday, that company does not propose to submit quietly to having its property virtually destroyed, as would probably be the case if no part of it is used in the new system.

There will likely be some interesting developments during the next 60 days, unless at the "harmony conference," proposed by the Board of Audit and Finance, all these matters are amicably adjusted.

LYON SWAMP DRAINAGE.

Commissioners Officially Notified of Their Appointment.

Messrs. B. F. Keith, C. W. Worth, of this city, and Mr. D. J. Corbett, Jr., of Ivanhoe, have been officially notified of their election to constitute the Board of Drainage Commissioners of the Lyon Swamp Drainage and Levee District by the clerk of the Superior Court of Pender county, the commissioners under the election and appointment being vested with the right to hold property, convey the same and to sue and be sued and to possess such other powers as usually pertain to corporations.

This is the first step in the reclamation of a large body of land in the Cape Fear lowlands. Mr. Keith having originated the idea of forming this district not alone for drainage, but for the purpose of building a levee to prevent the disastrous effects of the terrible flood which inundated that section several years ago and wrought thousands of dollars in damage to crops. Mr. Keith says the next step will be to issue bonds and begin at once the work of reclamation.

He is naturally much elated at this prospect of carrying through successfully a project for which he has labored long and unceasingly.

Brought 258 Bales of Cotton.

The steamer C. W. Lyon, Capt. Adkins, which arrived yesterday from Fayetteville, after considerable delay on account of low water, brought 258 bales of cotton, which is reported to be a river shipment from the upper Cape Fear this season. Besides having a steamer load, the captain was forced to bring a lighter along to carry the cargo. Receipts at the port by both rail and water have been good for the past ten days.

Handsome Apartments.

The handsome apartments recently completed by Dr. A. H. Harris at 611 Dock street, adjoining his own residence and office, have been occupied and are quite attractive. Dr. Harris has given a contract for another two-flat apartment house, similar to the completed and which is most desirable as a city residence.

ENJOYABLE ENTERTAINMENT

Pleasing Programme Rendered in Connection With Installation of Officers of B. Y. P. U. of the First Baptist Church.

The installation of the newly elected officers of the Baptist Young People's Union of the First Baptist Church, last night, was featured by the rendition of a pleasing programme, including an address by Rev. Dr. J. H. Foster, pastor of the church, musical selections, recitations and short sketches, all of which went to make up a most enjoyable evening for the large audience in attendance. The exercises were held in the lecture room of the church, which had been prettily and appropriately decorated for the occasion.

The entertainment, which was planned by and carried out under the able direction of Miss Mattie Maultsby, Miss Grayce Glasgow and Mr. R. W. Hodges, began at 8:30 o'clock with the rendition of the hymn "The Installation of Officers by Rev. Dr. J. H. Foster. The remarks of the pastor were of much interest to the members of the Union and were listened to with close attention by all present. The following are the officers for the ensuing term of six months and who were duly installed last night: President, Mr. C. B. Newcombe; vice president, Miss Grayce Glasgow; secretary, Miss Mattie Maultsby; corresponding secretary, Mr. Child; treasurer, Miss Mary English.

After the installation of the officers Mr. Paul Lupo delighted the audience with a piano solo, following which a play, "Why I Never Married," was presented by members of the Union and this proved one of the features of the evening. The following took part in the production: Mr. Child, Miss Berta Brady, Mr. L. P. Gore, Miss Nettie King, Mr. Guy LeMoine, Miss Mattie Maultsby, Mr. L. N. Henderson, Miss Grayce Glasgow, Mr. Slenofsky, Miss Grace Pickard, Mr. U. C. Ray, and Miss Maude Glasgow. The young ladies taking part in the play were charmingly attired in "Old Maid" costumes, while the young men were dressed to represent old bachelors, their wearing apparel creating no little merriment. They told in rhythmic numbers the sad, old story which the wedding bells had failed to ring for them.

This was followed by a vocal solo charmingly given by Miss Sneed, whose superb voice has featured many pleasant occasions, after which a recitation, "Didn't We Charlie," by Mrs. W. F. Foster, Mr. E. Core and Mr. C. B. Newcombe, was given to the great pleasure of all present.

The evening's entertainment came to a close with the presentation of "A Pair of Lunatics," a romantic farce, by W. R. Walkers, which was given by Mr. C. P. LeMoine, as Capt. Geo. Fieldings, and Miss Maultsby, as Clara Manners. The place, a small assembly room in Dr. Adam's asylum for feeble minded and insane. The work of Mr. LeMoine and Miss Maultsby was splendid and they received the hearty applause of the audience.

The reception committee was composed of Mr. C. B. Newcombe, Mrs. O'Neill, and Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Weatherbee, and the ushers were: Misses Lena Stanland, Annie May Gore, Mable King and Margaret Pearl.

THE SMALLPOX SITUATION.

Four New Cases Discovered Yesterday Morning—Other Cases.

There are some eight or ten known cases of smallpox in the city at the present time and while there is no occasion for alarm the situation is giving the city officials some little concern. It will be recalled that the disease prevailed in this city practically throughout the Summer, there being a few scattering cases, this being rather unusual for the Summer months. The disease seems to thrive better in cool weather and some are apprehensive lest there be an epidemic of smallpox during the Winter. There are three cases at the pesthouse and the patients are doing well. The following persons were discovered yesterday morning to have the disease: Mrs. Crews, No. 917 North Fifth street; Lonnie McGee, colored, No. 1008 Chestnut street; Theodore and Sam Taylor, colored, No. 1014 Walnut street. They have been quarantined at their homes.

The Cooking Demonstration of Wesson Snowdrift Oil

(For Salads and Cooking)

Now in Progress—Instruction Free

Under Auspices of the Hospital Circle of Kings Daughters

at 119 N. Front St.

If you haven't been attending the free cooking demonstrations and lectures, being conducted under the auspices of The Hospital Circle of The King's Daughters, it's high time you were. The demonstrations will cease today. If you want to receive the benefit of the lectures and suggestions on cooking, you'd better come. Mrs. W. H. Daniel, of Savannah, assisted by an expert crew of cooking demonstrators, has many interesting things to tell you about culinary work, that will effect wonders in your cooking—no matter how good it is. Mrs. Daniel answers questions when you're in doubt, and you can depend on her statements being true.

She explains fully how to use Wesson Snowdrift Oil, the vegetable cooking fat and reliable salad dressing. This oil is superior to butter for shortening. Its richness as a salad dressing makes it desirable by housewives who really take an interest in preparing delicious, wholesome things to eat. It contains no animal fat. When used in frying, it gives off no smoke or odor. It's pure. Equally effective in Summer and Winter, and it always keeps fresh. The amount necessary to produce better results is less than butter, lard, or olive oil, and it is less expensive. The committee in charge of the demonstration has on hand a number of 9 1/2 ounce cans of Wesson Snowdrift Oil, which they sell for ten cents each.

This oil was donated by the Southern Cotton Oil Company and the proceeds derived from its sale is clear profit to the Hospital Circle of the King's Daughters.

The luncheons are served daily from 12:30 to 2:30 for 25 cents. Money derived from the luncheons is also retained by the organization.

Remember today is the last day of the demonstrations. Don't fail to take advantage of this opportunity to be benefited by the lectures and new methods of cooking, discussed by the demonstrators. Make arrangements with Mrs. Daniel to instruct your cook how to be more efficient and economical. The service is free.

SOCIAL and PERSONAL

Brief Mention, News of Societies, Meetings, Etc.

Mrs. A. V. Laffitteau has returned from a very pleasant visit of some time to friends in Baltimore.

Miss Carrie Belle Bethea arrived yesterday on the steamer C. W. Lyon, from Willis Creek to spend the winter with the family of Mr. C. P. Love and attend school.

Miss Ruth Huband left yesterday for her home in Richmond, Va., after a pleasant visit to relatives in this city. She is a charming young lady and friends hope she will return frequently.

Miss Willie Thigpen underwent an operation at the Jackson Walker Memorial Hospital Thursday for appendicitis. The operation was successful and friends will be glad to learn that she was reported as getting along very nicely yesterday.

LOCAL CHAPTER, U. D. C. DOES NOT FAVOR TAG DAY.

At a meeting of the executive committee of Cape Fear Chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy, held at the W. L. L. Armory at noon yesterday, the communication from the State committee for organizing Tag Days for raising money for monuments to the Southern women was read and discussed at some length, after which the corresponding secretary was instructed to send the following reply: "Wilmington, N. C., Oct. 7, 1916. "Gen. Julian S. Carr, Chairman Monument Com., Durham, N. C.

"My dear sir:—Cape Fear Chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy, disapproves of raising money for monuments to the 'Women of the Confederacy' in such an undignified way as Tag Day.

"We feel these monuments should be erected by voluntary contributions.

Yours truly,
"COR. SECRETARY."

LOCAL DOTS.

—There was no session of the Recorder's court yesterday for the reason that there were no cases on the docket for trial.

—Services at the Salvation Army Hall, on Market, near Second street, tomorrow will be as follows: Sunday School at 11 A. M.; regular service at 8 P. M.

—Services at Immanuel Presbyterian church, Rev. J. S. Crowley, pastor, will be held tomorrow as follows: Preaching at 11 A. M. and 8 P. M.; Sunday School at 3:30 P. M.

—Adjutant Williams, of the local post of the Salvation Army, announces that Staff Captain Brooks, of New York City, will pay an official visit to the Wilmington post next week. Capt. Brooks will be here Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday and will conduct services at the hall each day.

—Chairman Marsden Bellamy, of the New Hanover Democratic Executive Committee, announced yesterday that the meeting of the committee called for today had been postponed until Monday at 12 o'clock, this action being necessary on account of the fact that several members have important engagements for today.

—The pastor, Rev. J. C. Mizell, closed a very successful revival at the Mill Creek Baptist Church this week, there being 22 conversions to the church. The congregation has let the contract for the erection of a new house of worship and it is expected that the edifice will be completed in a short time.

—A street car accident was narrowly averted on Fourth street, near Brunswick, about 6 o'clock yesterday afternoon, when a small negro boy darted in front of a junction bound car. The motorman applied the emergency brakes and dropped the fender, bringing the car to a standstill just as the fender struck the lad's legs. The boy jumped up and ran off, none the worse for his experience.

LORIMER INVESTIGATION.

Browne Concluded His Story Yesterday—Features at the Hearing.

Chicago, Oct. 7.—With the hearing before the senatorial committee that is investigating the election to the Senate of William Lorimer drawing to a close Lee O'Neill Browne today concluded his story of the election, told for the first time under oath. He denied all charges of bribery.

A subpoena was issued today for Speaker Edward D. Shurtleff, who presided over the session of the Legislature that elected Mr. Lorimer. Mr. Shurtleff is expected to testify tomorrow.

Every effort was made today to discover the whereabouts of State Representative Robert E. Wilson, alleged distributor of the St. Louis "jack pot" but without success.

In his testimony today, Minority Leader Browne said that he saw Wilson last month and that the latter seemed to be a nervous wreck.

Senator Frazier led in the cross examination of Browne this afternoon. Senator Frazier asked:

"Did you receive any money or anything of value for your vote for Senator Lorimer, or your efforts to induce other Democrats to vote for him?"

"No, sir," Browne replied.

"Did you receive any money for campaign purposes, because of your vote or acts?"

"No, not a penny."

New York, Oct. 7.—Chicago was chosen as the place for the fourth annual meeting of the Association of Life Insurance Presidents, at the bi-monthly meeting of the organization today. The meeting will be held on December 8th and 10th.

MR. E. J. LITTLETON DEAD

Passed Away at His Home in This City Last Night—Was a Well Known Citizen—With One Firm Over Forty Years.

Many friends will learn with sincere regret of the death of Mr. Edward J. Littleton, which occurred at his home, No. 312 Queen street, at 10:45 o'clock last night, after an illness extending over a period of more than two years, having been stricken with paralysis April 10th, 1914, and confined to his home practically every since, however, there was no decided change for the worse until last night, about 8 o'clock, and within three hours he had passed to the great beyond.

Members of the family were hurriedly summoned and were at his bedside when the end came at the hour mentioned. While somewhat prepared for the worst, having been fully acquainted with the fact that there was no hope for his complete restoration to health, the realization of his passing comes nevertheless, as a sad blow to members of the family and friends.

Mr. Littleton was 79 years old and was born in Onslow county, where he lived until 1857, when he moved to Wilmington. When the war between the States broke out he was detailed to do duty at the salt works on this coast and later was sent to Winston-Salem to work in a paper mill. He returned to Wilmington in 1866, and has resided here continuously since that time. Shortly after returning here he took a position with The World Company, with which firm he was connected for more than 40 years, being at the time of his death still on the payroll of the company in recognition of his faithful services of the past. He was actively connected with the firm until he received the stroke of paralysis two years ago.

He was twice married, and is survived by his second wife and two children, who blessed the union of the first marriage, these being Mr. J. F. Littleton and Mrs. J. A. Lewis, both of this city, who have the tenderest sympathy of a great many friends in their bereavement. Mr. Littleton was a member of the Primitive Baptist church, and a man well known and held in the highest esteem in the community.

The funeral will be some time Sunday, the hour to be announced later.

BUNSWICK COUNTY NEWS.

Items of Interest, Personal and Otherwise, from Southport.

The following items of interest here are taken from this week's issue of the Southport News:

—Miss Alice Adkins left last week to enter the High School in Wilmington.

—Mr. Robert St. George left last week for Wilmington, where he has accepted a position with the Jacob Hardware Company.

—The Francis Elizabeth, pilot boat, is up to Wilmington having an engine installed. It is to be a gasoline engine. The survey party of the Engineer Corps, which has been quartered on the Garrison this summer, moved to Wilmington last week.

—Mrs. J. W. Keal, who recently moved to Wilmington, returned on Thursday with her furniture, but, evidently not being satisfied with Southport, returned to Wilmington on Saturday again. When the steamer Colorado came down the river on Monday night Capt. O. D. Burris was aboard as pilot, and the pilot boat that was intended to go out to the bar and take him off the steamer failing to work at the proper time, Capt. Burris had to proceed to Jacksonville, Fla. with the steamer. It is quite an interesting joke on Capt. Burris, but was one of those unavoidable incidents that sometimes happen to the great inconvenience of a pilot.

CHURCHES MAY CALL PASTOR.

Services Yesterday at Harmony, Caswell, South and Black River.

As the result of special services held in each of the churches yesterday it is quite probable that a pastor will be called at an early date for a group of Presbyterian churches up the A. & Y. railroad, embracing Harmony church, at Kerr; Caswell, near Atkinson; South River, at Garland, and Black River at Ivanhoe. The services were held by the following Wilmington Presbyterian ministers in the order named: Rev. Dr. J. M. Wells, Rev. Dr. A. D. McClure, Rev. J. M. Plowden and Rev. J. S. Crowley. The ministers returned to the city on the A. & Y. train last night and reported that the prospects for calling a pastor for the group were exceedingly bright. The services were held at the invitation of the members of the respective churches with a view of ascertaining whether or not the congregations desired a pastor.

The regular Fall meeting of the Wilmington Presbytery will be held at the Presbyterian church in Elizabethtown next week, beginning Wednesday. The local ministers and delegates will go by boat, leaving Wilmington Tuesday night.

THE FIRST ANNIVERSARY.

Interesting Event at East Carolina Teachers' Training School. (Special to News and Observer.) Greenville, N. C., Oct. 6.—Yesterday was the first anniversary of the East Carolina Training School, and the chapel exercises were appropriate to the occasion. The usual devotional exercises were conducted by President Wright. Prof. W. H. Ruedale made an interesting talk on Educational Progress in North Carolina for the past ten years. Governor Jarvis gave a history of the establishing of the school. The school is making a fine showing.

DIED.

FARROW.—At the family residence in this city, No. 202 North Seventh street, HENRY LOUIS, the 10-month-old son of Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Farrow. Funeral this (Saturday) morning at 10 o'clock from the residence; interment in Oakdale cemetery; friends and acquaintances respectfully invited to attend.

AT THE THEATRES.

Seats went on sale this morning at Plummer's for the big musical show, "In Panama" which comes to the Academy of Music Monday night. This engagement is marked for a number of reasons. It is the greatest success of the Roger Brothers it is the original New York production, made for the substitution of the Klein Brothers, German comedians, this being necessary on account of the death of Gus Rogers, and the highest price will be but $1.50.

The book of "In Panama" is by

"In Panama."

Sylvester Maguire and Aaron Hoff, the lyrics by Edward Madden, and the music was composed by Max Hoffman, who has contributed so many popular and useful melodies in the past. With four bright minds like these working in conjunction it is not surprising that such a successful play was given the public. In addition "The Cherry in the Class," "Mr. Moon" and "When You Steal a Kiss or Two." "The Girl Behind the Counter" comes to the Academy next Tuesday night, Oct. 11th. Lew Fields, who has the reputation of sending out none but the most complete musical comedy entertainments known to modern stagecraft, is the sponsor for the appearance of Dick Bernard and a company of nearly 100 in this production. It was Mr. Fields' greatest triumph in New York and he has placed it on tour this season with all the original details of unique and elaborate scenic effects. The company includes a chorus of metropolitan beauties, such as have been a feature of all of Lew Fields' shows. Seats on sale Monday.

An Extraordinary Cast. Manager George H. Brennan has provided a remarkable company of players for Thomas Dixon's new drama, "The Sign of the Cross," which will be presented here at the Academy on Saturday, Oct. 15th, matinee and night.

Among the principals are Mrs. Charles G. Craig and Arthur J. Pickens, the best black-face comedians in America; Ethel Wright and Robert Barton, both of whom are in big New York productions in which they enacted leading roles. The character of the doctor, who plots the mischief in the white man's family, is assumed by Lydia Knott. With a cast filled with names like these, "The Sign of the Cross" will be the real dramatic treat of the season.

The Crystal Palace. The performance at the Crystal Palace to day will close the engagement of the Four musical Woods and Prof. Goodman, the ventriloquist, and doubtless many persons who have not attended since the change of program Thursday will witness one of the performances today, either afternoon or night. The bill at the Crystal was considerably improved with the change of program. The work of the little Woods is especially clever.

At the Bijou Today. "A Summer Idyl" will feature the bill at the Bijou today. That fascination and infatuation are simply form of hypnotism is shown in this story. Another of interest is the "Rose Leaves," a delicate society drama with a theme as delicate in tinting and as strong in purpose as the color and tion to the stars, the Klien Bros. there are Miss Sibyl Brennan, William Edmunds, Jay Woodford Ray and several other principals just as prominent and a monster chorus. Ben Teal, the best known master of stagecraft, personally supervised the production, and it is his boast that it is the best work he has ever done in his long career.

It was a matter of pride with him as he devoted many long, wearisome weeks preparing and rehearsing the big company. Nor was his labor in vain. With a chorus the instruction was quite special and intended solely to develop in the beauties every art calculated to please the most blasé. Grace in stage deportment, walk and gesture, melodious singing, poetic speech, eloquent gentleness of expression, graceful dancing, everything in short, that art can add to this natural charm of woman was taught the innocent beauties by this masterful experienced producer. As a consequence, it has been said by some of the most censorious critics that the chorus of "In Panama" is the best dressed, most graceful and talented on the road to day.

A Big and Merry Event.

The measure of a musical comedy success may be taken by a rule based upon the number of popular hits it has created—the number of its tunes we hear whistled upon the streets. The big musical hits in "The Girl Behind the Counter," the big New York Herald Square Theatre Success, which Lew Fields has sent on tour this season with the complete original production, are as follows: "I want to be Loved Like the Leading Lady," "The Glow Worm," "Under the Yum Yum Tree," "Shopping," "The Bang-box Girl," "Won't you Buy," "Propose."

COTTON CLIMBING UP GRADE

Market Continues Active and New High Records for Season Were Reached Yesterday—Conditions in South Factor.

New York, Oct. 7.—The cotton market was even more active today with prices making new high records for the season on the strength of the English market following the settlement of the Lancashire labor troubles and bullish advices as to spot conditions in the interior of the South.

The close was slightly off from the top under realizing but the final tone was firm, and last prices showed gains of from 20 to 34 points for the day. The market opened firm at an advance of 11 to 28 points with the near months showing the greatest strength in response to the cables, while late positions were held back by heavy realizing. Immediately after the call, near months eased off slightly but the reactionary movement here made no impression abroad, later cables showing continued strength so that the local market soon picked up on fresh buying from long account, covering by recent sellers for a reaction, and re-buying by old bulls who had taken profits earlier in the week. Slight reactions occurred during the day, but the market at no time showed any signs of weakening and the general tendency of prices was upward until in the late trading, October sold at 14.34 or 36 points net higher and January at 14.54 or 32 points above the closing figures of yesterday.

There was a lot of cotton for sale around these prices and reactions of 5 to 6 points occurred from the top, but offerings were so well absorbed that the undertone continued very firm and continental trade interests were reported big buyers in Liverpool today, but local demand is said to have been inspired more by the firm ruling of the Southern spot markets in the face of the gradually increasing receipts, than by any fresh view of the crop situation. Southern spot markets today were 1-8c higher, maximum advances of from 1-2 to 3-4c during the past week.

Receipts at the ports today 50,363 bales against 78,290 last week and 62,925 last year. For the week 370,000 bales against 390,000 last week and 419,627 last year. Today's receipts at New Orleans 2,632 bales against 5,404 last year.

Spot cotton closed steady, 35 points advance; middling uplands 14.50; middling Gulf 14.75. Sales 2,100 bales.

Futures opened and closed firm.

REVIEW OF COTTON FOR WEEK

Speculation Broad and Active on the Market—Bullish Sentiment Has Predominated—General Conditions Given.

New York, Oct. 7.—A broad and active speculation has enlivened the cotton market which at first moved upward rapidly and then received a blow from liquidation by those who were loudest in professing themselves bulls for two or three cents advance. The outside public evidently puzzled by this, for a time bought somewhat less freely. On the whole, however, bullish sentiment has predominated, a reaction after a rise within a few weeks of $7.50 a bale being regarded as no more than natural, especially in view of the Lancashire outlook which, contrary to the predictions, was not at once settled. On Friday there was another leap of prices. It is predicted that in the near future the receipts at the ports and interior towns will greatly increase. Liverpool's spot, sales which in the fore part of the week were 12,000 to 20,000 bales a day, later on fell off sharply. The government report showed an average condition not very much under the ten year average, and with the exception of that of two years ago, the present acreage is the largest ever known. In any case, some think it is too early to "bull" cotton.

Yet the consensus of opinion is bullish. Many of the crop estimates are 11,250,000 bales or even half a million bales less. Some signs of an improvement in trade seems to be perceptible. The general financial situation is supposed to be better. The cotton crop movement continues to be disappointingly small. The arrivals at some of the big interior towns are pointed to by bulls as the handwriting on the wall, presaging, as some extremists think, a crop of not much if any larger than the semi-failure of last year. The quantity brought into sight during the week was smaller than in the previous week. How in such circumstances they can expect a big rise in prices is prevented. Later in the week prices again advanced owing to the settlement of the Lancashire outlook, very heavy rains at the South, some fear of frost, light receipts and a renewal of heavy buying by large interests and the outside public.

THE GRAIN MARKET.
Chicago, Oct. 7.—Each decline brought fresh support today in the wheat market. That was noticeable, however, that the market did not follow the advance very far and the choppy trade that resulted was not conducive of investment. The close was steady, and notwithstanding dispatches from Argentina, were even more contradictory than yesterday, showed a net gain of 1-4 to 3-8. Final sales of corn were 3-8 to 3-8 1-2 lower than last night, oats 1-4 to 1-8 off, and hog products cheap. Wheat, No. 2, wheat red, 98 1-4 to 99; No. 3 red, 66 3-4 to 67 1-4; No. 2 hard, 98 to 105; No. 1 hard, 110 to 111; No. 2 northern, 100 to 103; No. 3 northern, 108 to 112; No. 2 spring, 100 to 111; velvet wheat, 92 to 100; durum, 93 to 94 1-2.

GERMAN DAY.

Elaborate Celebration in Charleston Attended by Thousands.

Charleston, S. C., Oct. 7.—The German-Americans of Charleston celebrated "Deutscher Tag" Wednesday at the Schutzenplatz in a style well worthy of the anniversary of the landing of the first German settlers in America, on October 6, 1683. The officers, cadets and three hundred and thirty of the men from the German schoolship Freya, which has been in port for several days, joined with the German citizens in the celebration of the day. The exercises began at the Schutzenplatz at 3:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon and lasted until 11:30 last night. Addresses were made by Governor-elect Cole L. Blease, Mr.
Geo. Lantz, president of the South Carolina branch of the German-American alliance; Imperial German Consul Emil H. Janz, and Commandant Schaumann, of the Freya. The exercises were presided over by the Hon. John D. Cappelmann, Southern vice-president of the German-American alliance.
The speeches were interspersed with songs by the Maennerchor Eintracht, and at the conclusion the splendid choir of the Freya delighted the crowd with several selections. Luncheon was served to the officers, cadets and men of the Freya, after which everybody came out on the green and enjoyed outdoor sports. About dark a splendid display of fireworks was given, and after this dancing began at the pavilion and in the hall of the main building. Two thousand people were at the Schutzenplatz last evening and everybody was enjoying to the fullest the festivities of the occasion.

WATCHING PORTUGAL.

Spanish People Intensely Interested in All News.

Barcelona, Oct. 7.—The course of events in Portugal is being followed with the keenest interest in the clubs and cafes of Barcelona, and every piece of news that is allowed to filter through the rigorous Spanish censorship is eagerly discussed by animated groups of citizens. Several of the newspapers in response to the public demand for bulletin information installed screens on the front of their building on which they intended to throw lantern slides of the various places were set at naught by the authorities and in several instances the civil guards were forced to charge mobs which gathered at the newspaper offices.

The official information of the Spanish officials here declares that the old government still exists in Portugal despite the formation of the provisional government by the Republicans. The Spanish officials insist that the Portuguese army outside of Lisbon remains faithful to the king, but it is privately pointed out that even so, it would be impossible for the monarchist regiments to do anything effectual, as not only the railroads, but also the highways and even the foot bridges have been destroyed by dynamite from the capital.

CHARLOTTE BANK WINS.

Gets $22,000 in Its Suits Against the Southern Railway.

Charlotte, Oct. 7.—The sum of $22,- 000 has been awarded to the Charlotte National Bank in its suit of six or more years against the Southern Railway, following the failure of the Heath-Reld Jobbing and Commission Company, seven years ago, the bank holding bills of lading as collateral for a loan of $35,000 which it had loaned to the said company.
The bills of lading in the bank's hands, calling for cotton in possession of the Southern Railway, the bank instituted suit and in June, 1908, in this city, lost out in the Federal court before Judge J. E. Boyd, of Greensboro. An appeal was taken to the United States circuit court of appeals and the verdict of the lower court was reversed.

The case was settled by compromise at $22,000 for the Charlotte National a few days since, and the papers were duly signed by Judge Boyd at the October term of Federal court in Charlotte, which came to a close Wednesday afternoon.

The remainder of the $35,000 will be paid into the bank by officers, so that the institution will not lose anything by the transaction.

DOUBLE HOMICIDE.

Sensational Killing of Two in Dickenson County, Virginia.
Bristol, Tenn., Oct. 7.—Excursionists from Clintwood, Dickenson county, Va., today brought news of a sensational double homicide which occurred eight miles southwest of Clint-wood. Said to have been enraged with jealousy over a woman, Andrew Ball shot and killed his brother, Thomas Ball. Armed with a revolver the latter's son appeared upon the scene and shot and killed Andrew Ball.

PORTUGAL QUIET

Lisbon are closed.

The authorities sent a force today to seize the convent at Alcan and arrest the Friars. On arriving there they found the doors barricaded. The soldiers and members of the populace fired several volleys into the building, whereupon the friars returned the attack, their bullets striking the roadway and adjacent buildings.

The attackers then withdrew for consultation. Shortly they returned to the attack, assailing the heavy doors of the convent with battering rams.
When the doors yielded the soldiers and people rushed in and searched every nook and corner of the edifice, but not a Friar was to be found. It is surmised that they made their escape by underground passages, where they are now in hiding.

A cabinet council was convened today and discussed at length the weighty questions surrounding the administration of the affairs of the nation.

At a conclusion an official note was issued declaring that the republic was firmly established.

President Braga issued a statement today voicing the satisfaction of the government of the republic, that the departure of the royal family from Portugal was carried out without any unpleasant incident. It said also that military and civil adhesions to the republic constantly increasing.

When the Duke of Oporto embarked on the royal yacht at Cascaes he said:
"I am a Portuguese and hope to die in Portugal."

The only remark attributed to the Mother Queen Amelia was simply "Au Revoir." This she addressed to a lady in waiting.

Await Great Britain's Action.

Paris, Oct. 7.—The question of the formal recognition of the Portuguese republic, already is the subject of exchange of views between the powers.
So far as France and Spain are concerned, it is understood, they undoubtedly will follow the lead of Great Britain, whose century-old alliance with the Portuguese monarchs and her important commercial relations give her a position of pre-eminent priority.

From the standpoint of pure diplomacy it is understood that France regards the flight of Manuel from Portugal as the first great fact making possible the recognition of the republic, since the flight per se is considered a tacit admission that he abandoned the struggle to retain the crown. The intent here seems to be to await the certainty that the republic is securely founded. Advice received in France leads to the belief that the republic people of Portugal are likely to adhere to the republic proclaimed in the capital, and that the nation will be spared the horrors of civil war.

Note From New President.

Washington, Oct. 7.—A circular note sent simultaneously to all the ambassadors in Lisbon by President Braga, announcing that he has been proclaimed president of Portugal; that the revolution has been successful, and that he has appointed a cabinet,
was received by the State Department today. The United States has not replied to the note.

The State Department officials do not purpose to be precipitate in recognizing the new republic, and will not commit itself by any form of communication until proof of the stability of the proclaimed government is forthcoming. There are evidences of censorship in the news given out from Portugal, according to officials here who suggest that it is too early to judge accurately the status of the government power from the partisan proclamations of the Braga regime.

The protected cruiser Molinas is on its way to Lisbon, where it should arrive Sunday morning. It is believed the warship will not have to land men to protect American interests. The vessel is going to report on conditions there.

Fatalities Will Reach 1,000.

Frankfort-on-the-Main, Oct. 7.—The correspondent of the Frankfurter Zeitung at Madrid says that those who have arrived there from Vigo, Spain, report the number of fatalities in Lisbon as a result of the revolution at about 1,000 and that several thousand persons were wounded.

The Lisbon correspondent of the same newspaper says the new government has decreed the dissolution of religious orders, the members of which must quit Portugal within 24 hours.

Another decree, he says, calls on the clergy to abstain from wearing clerical raiment on the streets so as not to provoke attack.

London, Oct. 7.—Senator Costa, minister of justice in the new Portuguese government, has sent the following dispatch to the Times:

"The provisional government has just received the final adhesion of the military divisions stationed in the provinces."

"Perfect order and satisfaction prevails everywhere. The banks are showing restored confidence. The customs and other government departments resumed business today and all activities necessary to the discharge of the Nation's obligations are in progress."

"At a council held tonight we were able to consider the revolutionary period definitely ended and an era of progressive government and moral regeneration began."

"We already are receiving the warm congratulations of foreign peoples on the heroic and marvellously correct attitude of the revolutionary forces and their generosity towards the vanquished."

Paris, Oct. 7.—A dispatch to the Petit Parisien from Lisbon says that the provisional government has issued a decree of exile against the Portuguese royal family.

Toulon, Oct. 7.—The armored cruiser Leon Gambetta is preparing to sail for Lisbon.

REMAINS TO SALISBURY.

Late Alderman Heilig Who Met Tragical Death at Morgantown.

Salisbury, N. C., Oct. 7.—The remains of Alderman L. T. Heilig, of Salisbury, whose body was found in a piece of woods near Morgantown, yesterday, were brought to his home in this city last night for interment today. The exact manner in which Mr. Heilig met death is slightly mysterious at this writing, though it is known that he ended his own life.

He had gone to the Broadboks Sanatorium at Morgantown, some three weeks ago for treatment and it was thought he was improving. Mrs. Hel-lig made a visit to him last week and returned with the news that he was improved in health and mind, although Mr. Heilig contended otherwise. It is said he had been dead several hours when found. At an unguarded moment he had wandered from the hospital and his death was a great shock to his many friends.

He was about fifty years old and was well known in business circles, being prominent in the work of the Building and Loan Associations.

RAILROAD MEN GATHER.

Will Appear Today Before Interstate Commerce Commission.

Washington, October 7.—Railroad men from various parts of the country gathered here today for the purpose of attending a hearing at the Interstate Commerce Commission to-morrow concerning the long and short haul clause in the railroad act passed by the last congress.

The principal point of consideration will be to interpret the act regarding the six months period of filing applications for increased tariff rates, and whether or not it applied at the time the law was passed or whether it became effective months after the passage of the act.

Among the railroad men here are M.
C. Powell, vice president of the Queen & Crescent Railroad; F. A. Eland, traffic agent of the southwestern traffic bureau of St. Louis; C. C. McCain, chairman of the Eastern trunk line association and James C. Jeffries and
B. M. Appen, of the Missouri Pacific Railroad.

EBY WILL BE RE-ARRESTED.

Await Release of Former Virginia Mayor Now Serving Term.

Richmond, Va., Oct. 7.—Abraham Eby, former mayor of Burkeville, Va., who was convicted in Philadelphia a year ago and sentenced to a year's imprisonment for having blackmailed the late President Cassatt, of the Pennsylvania railroad, will be released October 19th, and will at once be rearrested by order of postoffice authorities in Philadelphia.

The re-arrest will be made and Eby will be brought to Richmond for trial on the charge of having used the United States mails for unlawful purpose in writing threatening letters to Mr.
Cassatt. Friends and relatives have raised a fund to defend him on the ground that the former mayor's mind is unsound from the persistent use of cannabellae, a strange drug alleged to have been discovered and used by Parsee Priests in India.

INTENSE SUFFERING.

Young Man Succumbs to Burns Received Two Years Ago.

Louisville, Ky., Oct. 7.—A case of suffering and vitality unparalleled in medical history was closed today by death when Luther Clifton succumbed to burns suffered twenty-three months ago.

Clifton, a young man, was walking to Louisville from St. Louis, and while sleeping near a camp fire rolled in and was burned all about the body.
He was brought to a Louisville hospital and for almost two years physicians laid out to save him. Hundreds of medical students contributed skill for grafting and his mother had given so much advice that she is seriously ill. Clifton's cries of agony became such that it was necessary to move him to a cottage on the outskirts. The body was so distorted with suffering that it was impossible to get it into a coffin.

SIGNS OF THE TIMES.

Democratic Outlook Was Never Brighter at Washington.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 7.—Showing that the Democrats are not a shadow which way the political wind blows have been plainly evidenced here during the last few days. It is apparent that the Democrats are only a stone's throw from control of the next national House of Representatives, that they have the senatorial situation well in hand, and that prospects are becoming brighter and brighter for a splendid entry into the White House in 1912.

Every congressman who comes to Washington, now, and many are returning to place their children in school brings the best of tidings regarding the outlook for a Democratic victory all along the line and for "turning the rascals out." This is now the slogan from Maine to California.
"Turn the Rascals Out."

FIRE AT ROCKINGHAM.

Discovered Among Cotton on Depot Platform at Late Hour.

Rockingham, N. C., Oct. 7.—Sunday night about 12:30 fire was discovered on the cotton platform at the depot and the fire alarm turned in. The fire company responded, and in short order had it under control. Twenty-five bales were damaged with a loss of about $750. At the time of the fire there were 14 bales of cotton on the platform. The shipment was billed to Sprunt & Son, Wilmington, but had been signed for by the railroad.

LOUISIANA COTTON AND CORN.

State Department of Agriculture Reports on Growing Crops.

Baton Rouge, La., Oct. 7.—A report of the Department of Agriculture of Louisiana places the cotton crop of the State for 1910 at 254,618 bales.

The corn crop is reported 113 4-5 per cent, as compared with last year; rice 98 3-4 per cent; sugar cane 99 3-4 per cent.

"SHOWED APPRECIATION."

Further Disclosures in Legislative Bribery Inquiry in New York.

New York, Oct. 7.—According to testimony given before the legislative investigating committee today by the legislative agent of the Lyons, N. Y., Sugar Refining Company, $9,000 was the extent of the "appreciation" shown to former Senator John Raines for his good work. In getting through legislation beneficial to the sugar company. Harry F. Zimmerlen, the witness in question, yesterday testified that he had given $3,000 to former Assemblyman John Burnett, for similar good work, but today corrected his testimony as to the amount. He was now sure, he said, that he had only given Burnett $1,500.

Greenville, S. C., Oct. 7.—Bunk Sher-rard was hanged in the county jail yard here this morning for the murder of an officer at Piedmont, two months ago. His last words were: "I am going home."
